Women's retreat at The House of Bread

Friday 20 March – Sunday 22 March

Arriving from 3.30pm on the Friday, finishing on Sunday afternoon.

When did you last take time to come away to be with the one who truly knows you? When did you last give yourself time to slow down and rest? What is God saying to you in this season of your life?

An invitation – to draw aside, for quiet and space, to be renewed in the stillness and to be strengthened in your union with God.

Isaiah 55 ...time to listen, to delight yourself in the richest of fare, time to draw near to the one who loves you and gives you true life.

A weekend retreat for women offering worship, unhurried space, creative activities, and time to replenish body and soul. There will be time to seek God together and time on your own. The weekend will be hosted by Helen Wentworth and Ann Neale, and team. The House of Bread is situated in beautiful countryside, offering comfortable en-suite accommodation, lounges to relax in, and outdoor space in the gardens and grounds with a river.

Single occupancy of a bedroom: £230 and shared occupancy of a bedroom £210.

The price is for full board accommodation staying in an en-suite bedroom. The House of Bread has a bursary fund for those who need financial support to enable them to come – do ask.
